

Personal Assistant – Dewsbury

Hourly rate £12.95 days £14.00 nights

Hi everyone, my name is Otto; and my mum has sent me on a special mission to find some very special people to help look after her.

My mum has epilepsy, uses a wheelchair to get around and has lots of other complex medical problems, but she's really independent and loves living life in the great outdoor's.

We are currently looking for PA's/nurses with good knowledge of epilepsy, dispensing medication, paralysis and dysphagia, The applicant must enjoy activities such as walks in the park, gardening, barbecues and trips to the seaside. Drivers preferable.

If your looking to make a big difference to one person's life, this position might be for you.

Shift patterns are 8am – 3pm, 3pm – 10pm, 10pm – 8am.

All applicants must be able to work at least two of these shift patterns and be willing to help out at short notice during holidays and sickness. Applicants should also be willing to work occasional weekends.

My mum is currently looking for a permanent PA/nurse predominantly for afternoons, however we are also looking to build up a team of bank staff.

If you feel like this is something you'd like to be part of please don't hesitate to get in touch. We'd love to hear from you. Otto x
